Ian Green, Dip PFS, is a 27-year MDRT member including 19 Top of the Table qualifications and in 2021 served as the 95th President. Ian is also a great believer in the whole person concept and a long time contributor to the MDRT Foundation First licensed to advise in the UK in 1995, he is the founder of a family-owned financial planning firm, Green Financial, in South West London. His leadership in the profession includes regular speaking engagements around the world, chairing MDRT's Top of the Table Board in 2017, a book published in multiple languages (including Greek!) and he has previously held positions as trustee on the Personal Finance Society Charitable Foundation and on the board of directors of the Life Insurance Association. When not being a financial planner, he can be found in the gym, cycling on his bike or walking in the park. As the 2021 President of MDRT his whole year was during the pandemic. As such he holds the unique distinction of being the only MDRT President to have served the full term without meeting another member in person, and from his house.
