The power of Excellence

Edit Martonosi, is an independent insurance broker with 20 years of experience. She is also a speaker at the MDRT conference held in Vancouver.

She has been an MDRT member for 8 years, with 3 years of Top of the Table membership and 4 years of Court of the Table membership. For her, creating insurance awareness and increasing the financial literacy of students and young adults is a labor of love.

As the chair of the Client Education Committee of the Association of Hungarian Insurance Advisors, she actively works on developing communication and customer awareness models for the insurance industry.

In 2018, she started creating the career path model for athletes, with which she provides a unique insurance and financial planning concept for car and motorcycle sports to the world's top athletes who choose to compete in dangerous sports. In 2024, she also presented her Spirit, Sport, Strategy concept at the MDRT conference in Vancouver.

As an MDRT speaker, she is passionate about our profession and committed to mentoring and nurturing the insurance professionals of tomorrow. In her own business brand, she works on creating intuitive wealth creation models for women and gives lectures in a university mentor program. Strategic insurance expert to the Hungarian National Motorsports Association.

At Hungary's leading insurance brokerage company, she was named Adviser of the Year in 2024, and she received a special award at the Hungarian WomenPower 2025 event for her impact on the community and her passionate educational work for financial awareness.
